I started building things for the web as a hobby over 5 years ago. Since then my passion for the field has only grown stronger. I'm looking for a position as a Full Stack Developer, but also considering Front End positions.

I'm a self-learner and a curious person with lots of motivation to expand my knowledge and cultivate a successful career. I have 5 years of experience with React, 1.5 years experience with TypeScript and Next.js and I genuinely enjoy learning how to use new tools, frameworks or tech in general, so I can quickly get up to speed with whichever stack you use.

SKILLS

Extensive knowledge in TypeScript & JavaScript, React, Next.js, GIT, TailwindCSS, Node.js, Linux, HTTP and Networking

Limited knowledge in UX, Web Accessibility, Security, Docker, Hosting and Deployment, UI and Unit Testing, Python

Familiar with Figma, Photoshop, Unity (C#), Deep Learning, Computer Vision

My skill set also includes Self Learning, Writing Documentation, Troubleshooting, Presentation (PowerPoint, Keynote)

Languages English (Fluent), Hebrew (Native), German (Basic)

PROJECTS

Pasta Quiz Quiz built with React, Next.js, TypeScript and TailwindCSS.

Showcasing DB integration with Supabase, SSG and image optimization with Next.js, and type-safe state management with React Query and zod.
